

Fig 3.

	Summer term 1	Why this? Why now?	Summer term 2	Why this? Why now?
Year 10	Component 2: Health and social care services and values – Understand the different types of health and social care services and barriers to accessing them	Developing on their understanding of how people develop through the life stages. This unit allows pupils to gain a knowledge on the types of services people might need if they are unwell and how they can access them no matter their circumstances.	Component 2: Health and social care services and values – Understand the different types of health and social care services and barriers to accessing them	Developing on their understanding of how people develop through the life stages. This unit allows pupils to gain a knowledge on the types of services people might need if they are unwell and how they can access them no matter their circumstances.
Year 11	Component 3: Health and wellbeing – factors that affect health and wellbeing, interpreting health indicators and person-centred health and wellbeing improvement plans – REVISION Preparation for future steps in the industry – online courses to support their development for the future	To prepare the pupils for sitting their external exam To support progress in the future	External exam has been sat (40%)	